1862, with the fewest recruited during 1865. The highest concentration of recruitment of colored soldiers for the United States 33rd Colored Troop came primarily from three states. These included (in order): South Carolina, Georgia, and Florida. Of the seventy soldiers were recruited during 1862, with the fewest recruited during 1865. The highest concentration of recruitment for colored troops for the 33rd. Most troops were under the age of 25.

MANY OF THE SOLDIERS IN THE 33RD ARE LISTED AS LABORERS. IN THE CONTEXT OF THIS ERA, THIS MAKES SENSE AS THE MAJORITY OF LABORERS WERE BLACK. IN 1860, ABOUT 60 PERCENT OF SLAVES WERE LABORERS. AS SUCH, IT IS EVIDENT THAT MANY OF THE 33RD WERE Hired OUT LABORERS. THEIR OWNERS WOULD RENT OUT THEIR SLAVES TO OTHER LANDOWNERS TO WORK ON THEIR LAND.
